Hera will present its business plan to 2019 in January

The Hera Group hereby announces that its Board of Directors will be convened on 11 January 2016 to approve its new five-year business plan to 2019. The approval date has been postponed with respect to the one followed each year for updates to the business plan, in order to implement the new tariff regulations concerning activities in gas, electricity and integrated water services distribution, whose publication has been announced by the Authority for electricity, gas and water services within the month of December.
