3 Voting rights conferred under the Agreement

The Modena Agreement concerns 231,421,326 Voting Rights collectively held by 20 public sector shareholders, amounting to roughly 10.38066% of the overall Voting Rights.

All Hera shares held by the Parties at one moment or another and all the corresponding Voting Rights are bound to the Voting Syndicate.

4 Content of the Agreement

4.1 Voting Syndicate

In order for the Voting Syndicate to reach decisions, the Parties have established a deliberative body of the Voting Syndicate (the "Syndicate Assembly") made up of the pro tempore legal representatives of each Party or their proxies.

The Syndicate Assembly shall meet:

- (i) at least one day prior to each meeting of the Syndicate Committee, described under the Hera Agreement, whose agenda includes one of the resolutions and activities falling under article 4.3 of the Hera Agreement itself;
- (ii) at least one day prior to each meeting of the Hera Shareholders Meeting whose agenda includes any subject different from those falling under the responsibility of the Committee as described in the previous point (i).

As regards the procedure for drafting the majority list for appointing Hera's Board of Directors, if and when the Hera Agreement stipulates that:

- (i) the Parties of the Modena Agreement are entitled to appoint one single member of the majority list for electing the Board of Directors, the Syndicate Meeting shall be responsible for this;
- (ii) the Parties of the Modena Agreement are entitled to appoint two members of the majority list for electing the Board of Directors, the Municipality of Modena shall be responsible for designating the person proposed as vice chairman of the Board of Directors, while the second member shall be chosen by the Syndicate Meeting;

(iii) the Parties of the Modena Agreement are entitled to appoint more than two members of the majority list for electing the Board of Directors, the Municipality of Modena shall be responsible for designating two thirds of those included in the list, rounded off to the closest whole number, including the one proposed to act as vice chairman, while the others will be chosen by the Syndicate Meeting.

The Syndicate Meeting resolves based on the number of Hera shares blocked pursuant to the Hera Agreement and possessed by each Party, compared to the total number of Hera shares blocked pursuant to the Hera Agreement possessed overall by the Parties: for the resolutions to be valid, the presence of a number of Parties possessing at least 7/8 of the blocked shares is required, along with the vote in favour of a number of Parties holding at least 7/8 of the blocked shares with respect to those held by the Parties who are present.

4.2 Regulations for blocked Hera shares

The Modena Agreement does not call for a specific Block Syndicate, referring instead to the Hera Agreement for the regulations it contains concerning blocked shares.

4.3 Regulations for Hera shares not included among the blocked shares

The Modena Agreement refers to the Hera Agreement for regulations concerning the transfer of shares not included among blocked shares. it furthermore foresees that the parties shall commit themselves to priorly and jointly defining, in the Syndicate Meeting, the amount of shares to be transferred.

5 Duration of the Agreement

The Modena Agreement, effective as of 1 July 2021, will remain in force until 30 June 2024. The Parties have committed themselves to renegotiating the Agreement in good faith and respecting its spirit before its expiry.

6 Nature of the Agreement and parties that exercise control over the Company through the Agreement

Bearing in mind that which has been indicated above, the Modena Agreement can be considered relevant to the content of article 122, paragraph 5 a) and b) of the TUF.

Considering the nature of the Modena Agreement, and by virtue of the provisions contained therein, no individual is able to exercise control over Hera.

7 Penalties

Any Party defaulting the provisions of the Agreement will be bound to pay a penalty amounting to five percent of value of the Hera shares held at the moment of default, calculated as the average of the official stock exchange price of Hera shares over the 15 stock market days prior to the date of the default.

8 Filing of the Agreement

The Modena Agreement was filed at the offices of the Bologna Companies Registry on 21 June 2021, no. RI/PRA/2021/44833/800.
